An Invitation to Fulfillment

Just as the human body depends on the functioning of each of its parts, so does the Body of Christ need the full participation of each of its members. The gifts God gave us are meant to be used to fulfill His mission and to develop our spirit.

One way to achieve this fulfillment is through congregational involvement. On the following list of committees, you can see the need for two types of volunteers: those whose skills lie in planning and coordination and those whose abilities fall in the “hands-on” area, where help will be needed for specific projects and times.

A full description of each committee is online at www.chestnutgrovebaptist.org and in a paper version in the vestibules.
